FAST UNTO BEATH FROM JANUARY 30, 2023
FOR JUDICIAL REFORMS

Date : 30, January, 2021.

SPEED POST

To,
The Hon'ble Chief Justice of India
and
The Hon'ble Prime Minister of India
New Delhi.

Godse killed Gandhi on this day. Our slowest Judiciary in the world kills thousands of members of litigant families every day!

I introduce myself as an ordinary common man of 83 years old.

I have filed 117 PILs in the Bombay High Court and the Supreme Court and most of them argued in person. Registered a trust named Forum For Fast Justice (Forum for short) for judicial reforms with the generous support from the philanthropists and our trustees, we set up 115 registered Societies For Fast Justice in 23 states of the country and set up a National Federation of Societies For Fast Justice. We alongwith our trustees and Federation members had toured 18000 kms acrossed the country in 35 days NYAY YATRA from 30eth January 2016 onwards spreading message for the need of judicial reforms. But the legislature i.e. elected MPs and MLAs facing about 50% of criminal cases, were determined to defeat this nationwide movement. Supreme Court passed an order to complete alleged politicians' cases trials within one years but they laugh at such orders and continue to enjoy the state largesses and went on increasing their own coffers.

I, with or without Forum trustees, met who is who of the country with folded hands and bowed head. The VIPs we met during last decade for receiving support in the dream of realisation of fast moving vehicle of judiciary were Ramdas Athavale (RPI, Athavale), Eknath Gaikwad, Priya Dutt, Minild Deora, Kripashankar Singh and Dinsha Patel of Congress, Gopal Shetty, Gopinath Munde, Jaywanti Mehta, Arun Jaitly, Sushma Swaraj, Dr. Murli manohar Joshi, Ravishankar Prasad and L.K.Advani of BJP, Manohar Joshi and Subhash Desai of Shivsena, A. B. Bardhan, Chief of CPI, Sharad Yadav, JD(U) Chief, Mitrasen Yadav (BSP), Devendra Prasad Yadav (RJD), Y.P.Trivedi, Tripathi and Praful Patel of NCP, M.V.Reddy of DMK and Abu Azmi of Samajwadi Party and talked on phone to Brinda Karat of CPM, Mamta Banerjee of Trinamool Congress and Maitreyan of AIMDK.

We also met Rahul Gandhi on 16th Jan. 2009 and requested him to provide for judicial reforms in Congress manifesto for ensuing Parliamentary elections, He immediately phoned to Veerappa Moily, party's manifesto committee chairman and asked to discuss the matter with us.

He also met three Chairmen and member Secretaries of the Law Commission of India on reforms but again without result.

Shri Moily, himself a former Supreme Court lawyer, Karanataka CM and the Chairman of the 2nd Administrative Reforms Commission, enthusiastically went on announcing his plans for judicial reforms after assuming the office of Law Minister in June 2009. In middle of 2011, Shri Salman Khurshid took over the law Ministry and Dr.Moily was shifted to the Corporate Affairs. We met Khurshid also.

Also met some top officers of Ministry of Law and Judiciary, sitting and retired High Court and Supreme Court Judges, Leading advocates of the country but all in vain.

Everyone appreciated our fight for justice but none joined the movement. Backlog of the cases went on piling up in Indian courts, reached over 4 crore as of today and it takes lives after lives till disposal. The maximum human right violations are committed in Indian Courts and Human Rights Commissions are toothless.

Standing Committee of Parliament headed by Shri Pranab Mukherjee in its 85th Report, submitted in February, 2002 to Parliament, recommended the acceptance, in the first instance, of increasing the judges strength five times as was recommended by the 120th Law Commission Report.

Supreme Court in 2002 gave a landmark judgement in a case filed by All India Judges Association V/s. Union of India & all states directing them to increase the judges strength five times within 5 years to clear the backlog but none including Centre, states, Supreme Court, High Courts or the Judges Association itself did anything of the sort.

The salient features of the judgement are as under:

2002 (2) SCR 712. All India Judges Association and Ors. V/s. Union of India and Ors., Pronounced on 21-03-2002. The three judge bench directed :

Infrastructure required in the form of additional court rooms, buildings, staff, etc., would have to be made available. We are also aware of the fact that a large number of vacancies as of today from amongst the sanctioned strength remain to be filled. We, therefore, first direct that the existing vacancies in the Subordinate Courts at all levels should be filled, if possible latest by 31 st March, 2003, in all the States. The increase in the Judges strength to five times should be effected within 5 years.

The end result is that Forum trustees, all of its Societies and their Federation are all frustrated due to the apathy of the authorities. I, as the founder of the movement, involved Forum trustees, its Societies, their Federation, donors and the masses who supported our 18000 km. 35 days NYAY YATRA, feel guilty and helpless to stand up to their trust in me.

Therefore, I hereby inform Your Honours that I will be sitting on FAST UNTO DEATH in Delhi from 30eth January 2023. If judicial reforms in lieu of the judgement cited above with matching annual budgets of the Central and State Governments not initiated on war footing and in right earnest without losing any time. If 50% work by that time is over, I will not sit on FAST UNTO DEATH, balance to be jointly assured to complete by 30eth January 2025.

Also there has to be four more benches of the Supreme Court to be set up in East, West, South and Centre to ease long travels of the poor litigants through constitutional amendment.

Pranam.

Verdict even 108 years on fails to end battle

Pradeep.Thakur@timesgroup.com

New Delhi: More than 108 years and after countless hearings, a district court at Ara in Bihar's Bhojpur district has finally given its verdict in a land dispute case. This is probably one of the oldest pending cases in the country, whose journey began in 1914 with a title suit filed in the Ara civil court during the British rule.

Finally, on March 11 this year, the additional district judge of Bhojpur, Shweta Singh delivered her judgment, a copy of which has now been obtained by the plaintiff giving him rights to a three-acre disputed land in Koilwar village, which is under attachment of the state for 91 years now. "It is no accident that consensus of judicial pronouncements holds the right to property to be organically linked with right to life protected under Article 21 of the Constitution," Justice Singh observed in her order.

Rooting for immediate release of the land, she dubbed the long pendency a "travesty of justice and tragedy of human life, inflicted upon the hapless (parties of dispute)." At the root of the dispute is a nine-acre land originally owned by Azhar Khan of Koilwar in Bhojpur district. The feud is between two Rajput families over three acres of this land, acquired from the heirs of Azhar Khan. Even after fighting the case for 108 years, neither side is ready for a compromise. The dispute lingers on even after this judgement, though the main protagonist of the case is long dead and descendants of Azhar Khan are believed to have all migrated to Pakistan after the Partition.

UNENDING LEGAL DISPUTE

Atul Singh, the winning party, is a Hindu College alumnus and the fourth-generation descendant of the original plaintiff, Darbari Singh. Even after a favourable verdict, Atul says he is not sure if the title suit has reached its finality as the other side has the option of moving the high court, and thereafter the Supreme Court if the order is challenged. "It is time that a curtain is drawn, though it may not be the final one, on this long meandering course of litigation between the parties, which has been going on since 1914," said Justice Singh.

Our Comment: If it can be appealed in the Patna High Court, it may take a decade more for disposal and finally in Supreme Court, one more decade.

This happens only in India, our beloved country.

Unless we all wakeup, the situation is going bad to worse.
